SIR,

I have the honour to inform you that the Melkote Sanskrit College is maintained at present at a monthly cost of Rs 100 out of which Rs 20 is paid to the First Assistant Maha-Vidwan Laksmi Tatachar He is the only Pandit of Mysore who has passed the examination for the title of Maha-Vidwan. He has also recently passed the Tarka Tirtha Examination of Calcutta Pandit Kuppa nengar the Head master of the College recommends that Maha-Vidwan Laksmi Tatachar may be given an increase of pay The young Pandit is deserving of encouragement and I have great pleasure in recommending an increase of Rs 10 to his pay The Head master also asks for a monthly grant for the purchase of books for the Library and an increase to the present grant of Rs 10 for scholarships recommend that Rs 5 a month may be paid for the purchase of new books for the Library and that the scholarship grant may be increased from Rs 10 to 15 The monthly grant provided for the

the College will have thus to be increased from Rs 150 to 170 I recommend that the increase may be sanctioned from 1st October 1901

2 Under the head of Grants-in-aid in the Budget there is a saving of Rs 52 being the grant of the Chikballapur Sanskrit School, of Rs 7 being the grant of the Roman Catholic School, at Harobele in Bangalore District, and Rs 5 of the Pariah School Vellur in Kadur District all which schools have been closed. The increase of Rs.20 to the grant of the Melkote Sanskrit College will be met from the above savings of Rs 64

I have the honour to be

Sir

Your most obedient servant

H J Bhabha
